

THE CARR remote EXPERIENCE

Issue No. IV

As we continue to live and work in isolation, we're arming you with the tools to stay connected with your colleagues, virtually visit national and international destinations and learn how you can support your local community.

WORK FROM HOME TIPS

According to a Gallup survey, about 43% of U.S. employees typically work remotely, either some of the time or full-time. Whether you're new to this WFH life or a seasoned veteran, here are some tips to help you thrive.

CONTEST WINNERS

Congratulations to our 3 contest winners! We loved seeing everyone's creative and functional home workstations. Keep sharing your work from home experiences with us by using #CarrRemoteExperience.

Tower Bridge - London, England

ATTRACTIONS

Being confined to our homes doesn't mean we can't still explore. Check out the below virtual tours to discover world famous sites near and far.

- 10 of the World's Best Virtual Museum & Art Gallery Tours
- National Museum of Natural History Virtual Tours
- Visit 56 World Famous Sites from Your Couch

SUPPORT LOCAL

Support small family farms and local artisans with direct grocery delivery to your house from 4P Foods. With every purchase, you are helping advance local food access initiatives at nearby food banks, farmers markets and "farmacies" for low-income patients with diet-related diseases.

SAVE A LIFE
GIVE BLOOD

GIVE BACK

The American Red Cross is facing a severe blood shortage as 6,000 blood drives and 200,000 donations have been cancelled in recent days. Rest assured, blood donation continues to be a safe process.

The U.S. Department of Health & Human Services and the Food & Drug Administration continue to strongly encourage healthy and eligible donors to donate.

Can't donate blood? Click here to learn how you can help spread the word.
